About Respite Care Charleston

For 25 years, RCC has provided support and services to those living with Alzheimer's disease and dementia in Charleston County. A 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, RCC provides support groups, half-day adult care for those with dementia (respite), one-on-one caregiver consultations, education and outreach. By supporting the needs of caregivers and their loved ones, we improve their quality of life and provide MORE. GOOD. DAYS.
